

BK 300 – Security stainless steel fitting

An important novelty between security products is the stainless steel fitting. It forms, together with a TOKOZ cylinder, a highly resistant set suitable to extreme environments of industrial buildings, companies or, for example, remote locations where high security is needed.

State before assembly

State after assembly

NEW PRODUCT

3

- > certified in accordance with EN 1627 and EN 1906, security class 3
- > shields, knob and handles made of austenitic stainless steel
- > parts manufactured on conventional machine tools, handle and knob bent from semi-finished machined parts
- > suitable for door thickness 40–80 mm (fixing screws and square spindle need shortening for door thinner than 75 mm)
- > distances 92, 90 and 72 mm
- > the length of the shield 266 mm, width 34 mm shield
- > choice of a combination of two different handles and knobs
- > lock cylinder not covered
- > the option to make customer logo on shield